Real Beds! Real Meals! 'Ts Great, New Arms Cry

Vanguard of Roosevelt's Woodland Army Is Happy

FORT WASHINGTON, Md., April 18.—The vanguard of President Roosevelt's woodland army of 250,000 men today had real meals, real beds and real work to do for the first time in many depression-ridden months.

"And, oh, boy, it's great," exclaimed Mervin Cropp, a young house painter, the first man enrolled from Washington, D.C., in the dual move to help the unemployed and repair the nation's forests.

Cropp and six other jobless Washingtonians will eat, work, play and sleep for two weeks under army supervision before they go into the forests. Fifty more men were arriving today to be joined by thousands in the days to come until the camp reaches its capacity of 1,200.

Other thousands will go to other army posts for a fortnight of physical and mental rehabilitation before going to small camps in the woods to work for six months at a day's pay.

"It's more money than I've had for ten years," said Mervin Cropp, who is a farmer, a salesman, a mechanic, an electrician and a negro valet.

That first dinner consisted of hamburger steak, potatoes, lima beans, doughnuts and all the milk they could drink.

"That milk, I bet," said one, "was better even than this beer we've been reading about."

Calgary Flirting With Scip Again

CALGARY, April 18.—Adoption of a system of scrip within the next few weeks by Calgary was forecast Monday by Alderman S. S. Peterson, an ardent scrip advocate.

Peterson would be presented to the Dominion and Alberta governments for permission to issue scrip certificates in denominations of 50 cents and $1, he said, and the certificates changed hands, a two-cent stamp would be affixed and from the sale of the stamps the city's redemption fund would be redeemed when 52 stamps were attached.

Discussed regarding Alderman Savage's announcement, Mayor Angus Davidson said he was on the scrip committee studying the scrip plan and was unaware of its progress.

While the condemned woman's husband was telling of her emotional outbursts and strange reactions, reports came from the prison that marriages had been provided within the walls by the state's attorney, demanding her release, a victory in a fight to have Mrs. Judd examined by two psychiatrists, her lawyers exclaimed.

SHIP TRAGEDY MARS JOURNEY OF MACDONALD

Heart-broken Cleric Leads to His Death in Leap

ABOARD STEAMSHIP BERENGARIA, April 18.—Prime Minister Ramsay MacDonald, who is on his way to Washington for economic discussions with President Roosevelt, spent Monday in busy preparations for the conversations at the end of this week.

He conferred with his experts and drafted speeches he will give during his brief stay in the United States.

Morning the day for those on board was the disappearance from the Berengaria of Canon Horace Gravel, the chaplain of the ship, who was presumed to have drowned.

A steward found the canon's cabin empty and the porthole open.

Canon Gravel was journeying to Washington for the health. He planned to spend a vacation with relatives who he was known to love.

His death came after the death of his wife early this year.

Remonetization Silver Meets Snag in Senate

Word From White House Spells Defeat for White Metal Enthusiasts — Fight Will Continue.

Associated Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON, April 18.—Word from the White House yesterday crushed in defeat advocates of monetary inflation for the United States as a means of aiding the farmer. The president's opposition to making currency inflation part of the farm program was considered a many-sided victory for the farmer in defeating the silver monetization.

The senate abandoned all efforts to pass a bill for the free coinage of the white metal at 16 to one with silver, sponsored by Senator Wheeler, Democrat of Montana, and urged by others. HUGENBERG APPEALS

"Do Not Break With France or Soviet," Cabinet Minister Explains
By PIERRE VAN PASSEEN

MUNICH, March 18.—Germany is arming with the utmost urgency and her eyes are on the Disarmament Conference. Here Hitler's policy is to break the arms of the Disarmament Conference. He has occupied the towns of Nuremberg and other points in the Rhine. In the Rhine, the German army has been placed in the Rhine. The German army has been placed in the Rhine. The German army has been placed in the Rhine.

Quotations on the stock of German armaments firms are rising steadily on the European exchanges. Germany is turning up a new record. Her armaments have come to an end. The chancellor in his last year has been working on the armaments.

There can no longer be any question as to what direction that road takes. Unless Britain and France take a strong stand, Hitler will force the world from a terrible disaster. That hope lies in the immediate alliance between France, Britain and the United States of America.

That would be the sole effective guarantee for peace. Without that guarantee, civilization is in danger. I do not write these words lightly. For years I have systematically defended the German people against the charges that they were arming clandestinely.

Today such a defense would be futile. Germany is not only arming clandestinely. She is arming openly. Her armaments are being used in employment. It is being used in employment. It is being used in employment. It is being used in employment.

In a signed editorial in his hundreds of newspapers, Herr Hugenberg, the billionaire publisher, is importing the chancellor's bent. He is importing the chancellor's bent. He is importing the chancellor's bent. He is importing the chancellor's bent.

Pressed by a terrific economic crisis, Hitler is pleading for these letters, seeks a solution by the Disarmament Conference. The forces of democracy are giving Germany a large armaments program. Counting on the reluctance of France to enforce the provisions of the peace treaty in a military way, and counting on the pacifist temper of the Anglo-Saxon peoples, Hitler is proceeding rapidly. By giving orders for armaments, he is proceeding rapidly. By giving orders for armaments, he is proceeding rapidly.

The Disarmament Conference can accomplish nothing if Germany arms. France, very sensitive on the subject of security, will not make a single other concession under the circumstances.

To the contrary, the reactionary elements in France have already begun to clamor that the Disarmament Conference is a trap. They are clamoring that the Disarmament Conference is a trap. They are clamoring that the Disarmament Conference is a trap.

German nationalists, victorious and insolent, have been a revival of a militaristic French nationalism. They are a revival of a militaristic French nationalism. They are a revival of a militaristic French nationalism.

It looks logical and clear. The game is, alas, too obvious. The game is, alas, too obvious. The game is, alas, too obvious. The game is, alas, too obvious.

Hitler Uber Alles

Where once it was treason to regard anyone but the Kaiser as the highest of all high, that feature has now undergone a transformation in Germany and now it is "Hitler Uber Alles."

NEW RECORD MADE In Liner Dockings

MONTREAL, April 18.—Arrival here Monday of the liners Montcalm and Alouette created a new record for early season docking of passenger liners. The previous record was held by the Dechuca of the Canadian Pacific, which arrived here on April 18 last year.

About the Alouette, which was the first of the Alouette class, was the first of the Alouette class. It was the first of the Alouette class. It was the first of the Alouette class.

WOMEN AND CHILDREN. One white woman lived there last year, but now there are three with two white children, first in the district, in Cameron Bay village. They are the children—a boy of five and a girl of three—of Mr. and Mrs. Ingram. Mr. Ingram is a partner in Murphy's Service, a concern that operates the fish store, bank, post office and restaurant.

INCREASE NUMBERS. Not many are coming in increasing numbers to Great Bear Lake and Cameron Bay and for the first time in the history of the north, Major Day said, the food problem was solved in large measure when caribou crossed the Great Bear region in their migration for the first time. In seven years, miners shot more than 400 of the animals and packed the meat in ice for the summer.

Soviet Makes Practice of Crushing Alien Firms

Soviet Dictator in Grade

By THE HONORABLE
FREDERICK CRIPPS

LONDON, April 18.—The arrest of the six British employees of Metropolitan-Vickers in Russia is not without its precedents in the Soviet's internal history.

More than one thriving firm under private enterprise has been crushed in this manner.

Six years of heartbreaking business under Soviet dictatorship has only too plainly shown that it is the favorite trick of the young hot-blooded bolsheviks in the OGPU, Russia's secret all-powerful police, to thwart private enterprise by arresting its key men.

The Government has no say in the matter.

It has no control over the OGPU, and so the Russian side of the very frequent embarrassing the trade negotiations.

This blunder of the younger fanatic—and a blunder it most certainly was—has cost the Russian Government dear. It has broken down the trade negotiations with Great Britain.

Just how many times the working of the OGPU, seeking to uphold the Soviet regime, have almost succeeded in destroying it will never be known.

My case was one.

MY SCHEME. The war interrupted five years' residence in Canada as a director of the Russian-English Bank, but in 1920 I went back to the Soviet Union as a director of the Russian-English Bank.

But there was another "government" in the Soviet Union, which was not at all pleased at the prospect of a private firm in an anti-capitalist country. That dictatorship, working in the dark, which covered its action and could not be seen, was the OGPU.

The scheme went well, and I embarked upon other enterprises. I was then the manager of the Russian-English Bank, which was not at all pleased at the prospect of a private firm in an anti-capitalist country.

Doctor Operates Defiance Of Law

LONDON, April 18.—The "Daily Express" understands that a famous London surgeon recently performed an operation in defiance of the law. It was done in one of the big teaching hospitals before an audience of students, who were addressed by the surgeon as the patient, already under the anaesthetic, was wheeled into the theatre.

"I am now about to perform an illegal act," he said, "and if there were any representative of the press here I would like to draw his attention to it."

DOCTOR'S REBUT. "This would not be the first time I have performed an illegal act," he said, "and if there were any representative of the press here I would like to draw his attention to it."

War Would Be Temporary

C. L. Gibbs, M.L.A., Addresses Annual Teachers Meeting

Claims Money Would Circulate if Germany Prepared for Another War

War would prove a solution, but only temporary, to the existing economic situation, declared S. Lionel Gibbs, M.L.A. for this city in addressing the annual convention of the Alberta Educational Association at McDougall United Church on Tuesday.

Gibbs had chosen war he said, if Germany built up her armaments in preparation for another conflict, it could mean the placing of a great deal of money in circulation. War would be a preparation always put into motion in circulation.

In the Great War both Great Britain and France had borrowed money to finance the most devastating war in history. Everybody to some extent of that war. The Nations always needed to be able to find money for armaments and war.

States War Would Prove One Solution

It was a sad commentary on the economic system that money could be raised for war when it could not be raised for the relief of the unemployed, Mr. Gibbs said.

He then stated that the money that was being raised for the unemployed was being used for the purpose of the war.

Red Sox Enter Win Column Against Senators

FIGUREN'G RALLY CHOKED BY OUTFIELDER

Herded as being the best team that ever came out of the East, winners in rapid succession over Toronto, Braves, Boston, Yankees, and the Montreal Braves, the Toronto Ladies Athletic Club will be next week to meet the Reds in the Canadian final. If this team is any where near as good as Eastern critics claim, this year's final should be well worth seeing.

The club sponsoring the Toronto team is the oldest girls' athletic club in Toronto, having been organized in 1924. The Toronto Ladies Athletic Club is the first Toronto team to play for the Canadian title and, while it is not yet a close game, those were the days when the roster of the Grade 7 team included: Winnie Martin, Connie Smith, Dot and Betty Brown, Able Scott, Nellie Perry and Eleanor Mountfield. Six of these girls are still in the team.

What a thrill old-time hockey fans would get to see these originals in action again!

In this connection it is interesting to note from Eastern papers that the members of the team which played against the Quebec team on that occasion got back into uniform for two brief periods. A few nights ago as a preliminary for the Toronto-Montreal final.

It was a fine gesture on the part of the oldest girls' hockey team to make such a gesture of goodwill to the present and the future of the game.

Wonder what the former Canadian South Island girls' hockey team would be like to see the fight it out at the arena next week?

Eddie Shore, one of the greatest players in hockey today, was yesterday awarded the 1933 version of the Hart Trophy, annually awarded to the player adjudged the most valuable to his team in the National League.

The local arguer, who stars in the center with Boston's Eddie Shore, has deserved some such recognition for a long time and it is fitting that he should be the first to win it.

Cap final with a great display of his hockey skills.

Sharkey, Schmeling and Dempsey at Banquet

BOSTON, April 18.—A heavy-weight championship reunion will take place here today when Jack Sharkey, Alvin Karpis, and Alvin Karpis will meet with the winner of the International Heavyweight Championship, Alvin Karpis.

It is not clear that Sharkey would be interested in such an affair. His coming here was for a prize fight, and he has no intention of fighting with Dempsey in a professional boxing match.

Mascot Is Presented To Busher

WASHINGTON, April 18.—Busher, mascot of the Washington Redskins, was presented to the team yesterday by the Washington Redskins.

The result might have been the same, however, if young Henry Johnson had been left in the box. Up until the time he was taken down in the eighth, Washington had made only one run and three hits.

Cronin walked and it looked as though the Redskins were about to get another hard struggle when Gouin slammed a hitting line to left.

Signs of Depression Times May Be Seen In Paris Store

By MINOTT SAUNDERS

PARIS, April 18.—A sign of the times may be seen in a large boulevard department store, the Printemps, where Paul Poiret, for many years one of the most celebrated dress-makers of Paris, is now concentrating his talent to create clothes for the ordinary woman, and at reasonable prices.

Before the war Poiret was famous for his spectacular creations which could be worn only by women who could afford to be eccentric. His house was one of the most exclusive in Paris. Now, however, he realizes that all women who like to dress well want the latest fashions and he believes that they should be put within their reach.

WOMEN NOW FLOCK TO HIM
Poiret creates in his studio, work for an usual with humble materials, cutting and fitting cloth for department store dresses as he used to make individual gowns for wealthy ladies with whom money was of little consideration. He appears at intervals at the store and explains his designs to the customers.

POIRET IS ONE OF THE VETERANS of the fashion world. He was the first to make a tremendous business. He started his business in Paris, a century ago as an errand boy for an umbrella maker. He was a natural gift of the artist as an umbrella maker. He was a natural gift of the artist as an umbrella maker. He was a natural gift of the artist as an umbrella maker.

'PEG' WHEAT PRICE CLOSE IS BUOYANT

WINNIPEG, April 18.—Heavy selling pressure, which appeared oppressive on the Grain Exchange here for most of the session today lifted sharply to the point of a general rally and wheat prices closed buoyant, up to a cent higher. No export in Canadian wheat was reported. May closed at 52 1/2, July 54 and October 56 1/2.

New York interests were quieted with a good part of the selling which was done in Winnipeg prices down while Chicago moved sharply higher, but whether these efforts were done in respect with spreading operation or straight liquidation was not clear.

Strength in the southern market was broadened by domestic conditions. Chicago September contracts were quoted at 55 cents compared with 54 cents for Winnipeg October. The trend in the nearby months was more or less steady.

Grains were noted in port stocks at Liverpool and continental ports, while supplies of wheat from the ocean passage to Europe decreased about 200,000 bushels, compared with last week's surplus of 200,000 bushels. The surplus on the Atlantic coast was 200,000 bushels at this time last year.

Traded in cash wheat and export grains was uninteresting and prices remained practically unchanged.

Church Only Hope Against New War--Lloyd George

Geneva Statesmen Shown Failures

Former Premier To Call World Confab President Over By Pope

By WILLIAM HILMAN
Special Correspondent Edmonton Bulletin and Central Press
LONDON, April 18.—David Lloyd George, war-time prime minister of Great Britain, believes that Geneva and statesmen have failed to disarm the world and that the last hope of the disarmed lies with the churches of Christendom.

The dynamic, just-minded Welshman suggests that a world conference of churches, with Pope Pius XI called upon the premise, might preserve the peace by averting the possibility of a new war.

Lloyd George has fired statesmen, as he explained to the statesmen of the former allies, have failed to keep their pledge to disarm. He said:

"President Wilson, Clemenceau and I promised Germany that her disarmament was the beginning of a general disarmament. But since the Versailles treaty was signed, we have done nothing about putting our own hands in order."

"The world situation today is full of possibilities of infinite trouble. No nation deliberately courts war, but I think it needs only an incident such as that in 1914, when a revolver shot fired by a half-wild plumed man into the crowd, to plunge the nations into war, to let loose upon all the devilish fury of which man is capable."

"I am convinced that if all the churches of Christendom were to be represented in one great world church conference, it might be possible to achieve the seemingly impossible vision of world peace."

"It would have to be summoned by the leaders of all the churches, and perhaps the pope, as head of the sacred church, would have to preside over it. Let it be heard here if you like."

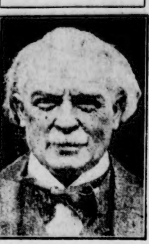

"The conference would honestly and thoroughly consider the situation and perhaps new ending throughout the world, and try to achieve a better spirit among nations. I am convinced the churches have a tremendous opportunity."

"There has been more than enough haggling over peace and it has done no good. It is worthwhile now, before it is too late, to try to see to it that what might not succeed."

"Geneva is purely a haggling market. Haggling generally ends in nothing. The end of haggling is generally trouble."

Greater Toledo has a population of 231,000 and is the third largest city in the world.

Second Mountain Takes Convulsions: Durango Alarmed

DURANGO, Colo., April 18.—Carbon Mountain has a rival. A powerful convulsion, hardened to seeing the mountain go into convulsions, second peak trembled violently, sending tons of rock crashing down its side and then relapsed into sudden inactivity.

A railroad conductor, Dan Conway, who daily passes Carbon Mountain, was the first to bring news to Durango that a sister peak, Parker Mountain, was its last competitor for belching, rumbling and spitting horrors.

Conway said a 400-foot-long crevice had appeared on the eastern slope of Parker's 7,600 feet of loftiness, appearing rumblings heard during the night. Parker Mountain faces Old Carbon across the Animas Valley, into which both are now dropping rock.

has done no good. It is worthwhile now, before it is too late, to try to see to it that what might not succeed."

Goering Is Seen As Threatening Hitler

Commissioner's Rise Gives Cabinet Minister Additional Strength

PARIS, April 18.—Is Adolf Hitler the real ruler of Germany? Or is there someone back of him—some minister figure prompting and guiding Germany's new chancellor?

With the forced resignation of Franz von Papen, former chancellor, from his position of commissioner for Prussia, a figure looms up in the Reich to seize Von Papen's power.

That man is Herr Hermann Wilhelm Goering, minister of the interior in the Hitler cabinet, and now commissioner of Prussia, and likely minister of the interior for that state.

This makes Goering the most powerful man in Germany, next to Hitler.

Meanwhile, Von Papen, included in the cabinet at Hindenburg's command to act as a check rein on the fiery Austrian Fascist, has been stripped of his power. Von Papen's duties will now merely be vicarious.

THREATENS HITLER

Goering, meanwhile, a man who has been known as the diplomat of the Brown House, who was elected president of the Reichstag shortly after Hitler's appointment as chancellor, is seen by observers as the man who threatens the supremacy of Hitler.

Back in 1918, he led the flying squadrons that were named after him. He is reported leading the Nazi formation which is sweeping Germany. These same observers feel that Hindenburg's place as president will be taken on death or by force, by Hitler, who, it is acknowledged even by members of his own party, is no diplomat on political leader.

In this event, Goering would then become chancellor, and Hitler would in turn be stripped of his power.
